Let's see, how to describe a picture. Study the sentence patterns given below.

❖ To introduce a picture, we use the following pattern.

We use 'This is ...'

E.g.; This is a picture of a classroom.

- ❖ When there is one thing/one person, we use:

There is a _____.

What are there in the classroom?

E.g.: There is a teacher.

There is a smart board on the wall.

- ❖ When there are more than one thing/more than one person, we use:

There are _____.

E.g.: There are some students in this class.

There are a lot of desks and chairs.

When the subject of the sentence is singular, we use:

Is + verb + ing

- ❖ What are they doing?

He is teaching a lesson.

He is showing something on the board.

- ❖ When the subject of the sentence is plural, we use:

Are + verb + ing

The students are looking at the board.

They are listening to the teacher.

Let's look at the picture again. Try to complete the description.
