Grammar Poem

Every name is called a noun
 As field and fountain, street and town
 In place of noun the pronoun stands,
 As he and she can clap their hands
 An adjective describes something
 Like magic wind or bridal ring
 A verb means action, something done
 To read, to write, to jump and run

How things are done adverbs tell
 Like quickly, slowly, badly and well

The Quarrel

I Quarrelled with my brother,
I don't know what about,
One thing led to another
And somehow we fell out
The start of it was slight,
The end of it was strong,
He said he was right,
I knew he was wrong!

We hated one another
The afternoon turned black
Then suddenly, my brother,
Thumped me on the back,
And said, "Oh, come along!
We can't go on all night-
I was in the wrong,
So he was in the right.
